

Bloom Ballarat

Careers, work and wellbeing guidance for single mums

"Erika and the Bloom program were very empowering and gave me much reassurance and confidence. Bloom helped me believe in myself and learn that the skills I hold are valuable. I now feel like I can explore my career pathway and kick any goal I set for myself. I had no idea whatsoever how to get back into the workplace to now being confident to be what ever I want to be. Highly recommend this program to ALL single mothers." - Michelle

"I love Erika's positive outlook and how she is so encouraging. I really don't think I would have taken these big steps if it wasn't for her support and encouragement. I'm so grateful for the CSMC. You all do wonderful work!" - Nikki

Council of Single Mothers and their Children (CSMC) has been advocating for single mothers for over 50 years. All staff have lived experience of single motherhood and understand the diverse and unique experiences and challenges of single mother families. Membership is free.
